1796 Turkeyfoot Twp. Assessment

Turkeyfoot Township was the second township formed in what is now Somerset County, Pa. In July 1773, when part of Brothersvalley Township became Turkeyfoot the new township comprised almost all the western half of the present county, and extended from the Maryland line into a corner of what is now Cambria County. By 1795, when Somerset County was formed, Turkeyfoot had been reduced in size and included what is now Addison, Upper and Lower Turkeyfoot. The township received its name from three streams which unite at the site of the present borough of Confluence and form what resembles a turkey's foot. George Washington is said to have visited this area. It is a historical fact that there were settlers in this area as early as March 1768. They were visited by the Rev. John Steele head of a Commission appointed by Governor Penn to go into the country west of the Allegheny mountain and explain that this land belonged to the Indians. The settlers were here illegally and were warned to leave. Names of nine have been recorded: Henry Abrahams, Ezekiel DeWitt, James Spencer, Benjamin Jennings, John Cooper, Ezekiel Hickman, John Enslow, Henry Enslow, and Benjamin Pursley. Settlement became legal after the Treaty of Fort Stanwix, Nov. 5, 1768. It is possible that these men had come from Virginia and may have thought that they were living in Virginia country.

In the spring of 1770, a group of 18 or 20 families came from New Jersey and settled in what became known as the Jersey settlement. In 1775 they established the Jersey Baptist Church, one of the oldest congregations in the county.

John Nickloe was the assessor for 1796 taxes for Turkeyfoot Township. His assistants were James McMillan and Lewis Mitchell. John Mitchell was the first tax collector. There were 4,372 acres of cleared land, 222 horses, 255 horned cattle and 161 houses in the township. Alexander McClintock had 436 acres with 100 clear and was the highest taxpayer. His tax was $6.30. William Tissue with 429 acres of land with 61 cleared was second highest taxpayer with a tax of $6.18. Thomas Spences and David Ream followed closely with tax of $5.85 and $5.76 respectively. Many thousand of acres were held by non-resident persons, some were land speculators, such as Wilcox and Chew of Philadelphia.

Following are the names of resident taxables in Turkeyfoot Township in 1796: Peter Augustine, David Ankney, Gabriel Abrams, Anthony and Jacob Brandeberry, Widow Brimingham, Joseph Biggs, Henry Bumbershime, Stephen, Jacob and Michael Bruner, Wm. Baker, George Barnet, Peter Bradford, John and Benjamin Bailey, John Cunningham, Robert Cockerton, James & Patrick Conner, John Collins, James Campbell, Robert Colburn, Lawrence Carney, John Clark; Oliver Drake, Isaac Dwire, Hugh Donley, Nathaniel Davis; John Drury. Henry and Peter Everly; Samuel Francis, Widow Forsha, Elias Flate; Richard & Thomas Green; David Goodwin.

Hinebaugh, John Hoover, Widow Hall & James Hall, Peter Helmick, Edward Harnet, Michael Harmon, John Hamble, Andrew & John Harrider, Isaac Heston and Martin Hileman, George Iseminger is the only I.

Many of these family names, with sometimes slightly different spellings are still well known in this area of Somerset County and elsewhere in the United States.

The occupation of most of the early settlers was that of farming. Other occupations listed are of interest. Joseph Biggs, Geo. Hinebaugh, James Love, James McMillen Sr., and George Pringey were Weavers. Tailors were James Conner and Tobial Ream; coopers were Thomas Huff Sr., and Jacob Nave. Oliver Drake and John Jones had grist and sawmills, David King had a gristmill and Henry Hartzell & Daniel McCarter had saw mills. Peter Everly, Henry Rush,

Meyersdale student wins essay contest

A Meyersdale student has won the county-wide 1988-89 Somerset County Courthouse Essay Contest.

Ami Aldinger, Meyersdale Area High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Knepper Jr., Meyersdale, was chosen as the county-wide winner.

She and the other winners from the individual schools were honored at a ceremony May 30 in the courthouse. The annual contest is sponsored by the Somerset County Bar Association.

The other winners were:

Scott Alan King, Shade High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. King, Stoytown RD 2.

Michelle Maust, Shanksville-Stonycreek school, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John Hinton of Shanksville.

Andrea Kathryn Crooner, Berlin Brothersvalley High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James

Crooner, Berlin RD 4.

Milton C. Baer, Conemaugh Township High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Baer, Johnstown RD 4.

Cindy Drummond, North Star High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Drummond, Boswell.

Paula Diane Beeghly, Somerset Area Senior High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Beeghly, Somerset.

Members of the bar association, who conduct the tour, explain the history and functions of the courthouse and county offices. Representatives of the various offices make presentations to the students and explained the background and purposes of their offices.

Students write essays on their impressions of the courthouse tour. A winning essay from each school is then judged by a committee of attorneys.

Graves-of-Revolutionary-soldiers-marked

By SEAN REILLY
Staff writer

Three soldiers fighting for the Colonies during the Revolutionary War had their graves marked Sunday at Younkin Cemetery four miles south of Kingwood.

The Sons of the American Revolution and the Daughters of the American Revolution conducted services certifying that Alexander McClintock, John McClintock and James McMillan helped the Revolutionary cause.

During the marking ceremony, the lives of the two McClintocks and McMillan were reviewed by SAR historian Elmer Snyder, and new tombstones were put on their graves.

The three will now be registered at national SAR headquarters in Louisville, Ky.

About 125 people attended the marking, part of SAR and DAR reminders of the Revolution.

"People are going to forget," said SAR member Clark Brocht. "Today, people talk some of the struggling and the hardships for granted. It's real sad to see some of the conditions these graves are in."

Descendants of people helping the Revolutionary cause are eligible to join the SAR or DAR, Brocht said, but they must be able to trace their lineage to a Revolutionary supporter.

Although the DAR and SAR deal primarily with soldiers and others from the War for Independence, the groups are also concerned with other veterans.

One of many unmarked graves in Younkin was Robert Nicholson's, a Civil War veteran. Through DAR and SAR efforts, Nicholson's resting place also got a headstone Sunday, Brocht said.

"Every veteran is important in their time period, whether that period is the Revolutionary War or Vietnam," he said.

Groups sponsoring the markings were the Bedford, Forbes Road and Great Crossings chapters of the National Society DAR; the Somerset-Cambria Chapter of the National Society SAR; and the Schneider Historical Committee.

Another gravemarking is 2:30 p.m. June 17 for Revolutionary soldier Johannes Detrich (John Deeter). That ceremony is at Deeter Homestead Cemetery in Allegheny Township.

The Pioneer McClintock.

The John McClintock referred to in these columns last week in the report of Memorial Day exercises should have been Alexander McClintock, who was a Revolutionary soldier and is buried in the Yunkin or McMillan cemetery at Paddytown, Upper Turkeyfoot township, this county. Alexander McClintock was the original progenitor of the McClintock families of Addison township. He married Miss Mary Esten in County Down, Ireland. Alexander McClintock served about seven years with the American forces during the Revolutionary period, from Hopewell township, old Cumberland county, Pa., and was killed at a log rolling in the year 1803 on the present Brooklin Cunningham farm north of the Bethel church in Upper Turkeyfoot township. Alexander McClintock and John Cunningham, the first of the Cunninghams of the Turkeyfoot region, settled in Addison township about the year of 1785. John Cunningham married Jane, the second child of Alexander McClintock.

Three soldiers fighting for the Colonies during the Revolutionary War had their graves marked Sunday at Younkin Cemetery four miles south of Kingwood.

The Sons of the American Revolution and the Daughters of the American Revolution conducted services certifying that Alexander McClintock, John McClintock and James McMillan helped the Revolutionary cause.

During the marking ceremony, the lives of the two McClintocks

and McMillan were reviewed by SAR historian Elmer Snyder, and new tombstones were put on their graves.

The three will now be registered at national SAR headquarters in Louisville, Ky.

About 125 people attended the marking, part of SAR and DAR reminders of the Revolution.

"People are going to forget," said SAR member Clark Brocht. "Today, people take some of the struggling and the hardships for granted. It's real sad to see some of the conditions these graves are in."

Descendants of people helping the Revolutionary cause are eligible to join the SAR or DAR, Brocht said, but they must be able to trace their lineage to a Revolutionary supporter.

Although the DAR and SAR deal primarily with soldiers and others from the War for Independence, the groups are also concerned with other veterans.

One of many unmarked graves in Younkin was Robert Nicholson's, a Civil War veteran. Through DAR and SAR efforts, Nicholson's resting place also got a headstone Sunday, Brocht said.

"Every veteran is important in their time period, whether that period is the Revolutionary War or Vietnam," he said.

Groups sponsoring the markings were the Bedford, Forbes Road and Great Crossings chapters of the National Society DAR; the Somerset-Cambria Chapter of the National Society SAR; and the Schneider Historical Committee.

Another gravemarking is 2:30 p.m. June 17 for Revolutionary soldier Johannes Detrich (John Deeter). That ceremony is at Deeter Homestead Cemetery in Allegheny Township.

My Eston McClintock was born Oct 8, 1826, according to his obituary. A looseleaf "register" in an old family Bible, though, lists his birth as Oct 8, 1829. He was born in Fayette County, PA

On Feb 5, 1853 he married Hulda Mitchell. In the same year he moved to Allamakee County, IA.

In 1854 he moved to Fairmount in Jasper County, IA.

He served in Company I, 27th Iowa volunteers from Aug. 15, 1862 to Jan. 17 or 27, 1863. He was honorably discharged at Jackson, TN.

In 1902, he moved to Desoto, presumably to move in with his daughter Jennie. He was a virtual invalid last 2 years of life because of poor health acquired during the Civil war and was living with daughter Jennie Taylor at the time of his death, according to the obituary.

He died March 1, 1909 in Desoto, IA.

Surviving children of Eston McClintock:

Mrs. Mary Taylor b Mary Ellen McClintock 12/5/1854

Mrs. Jennie Taylor b Unreadable Jane McClintock 4/15/1855 later records death as June 9, 1932 Married Rex Clark Taylor

Mr. Grant McClintock b Ulyses Grant McClintock 2/5/1864

Mr. J. H. McClintock b James Hiram McClintock 2/10/1867

Mrs. Minnie Hummel b Minnie Belle McClintock 10/17/1868

Does any of this ring a bell? Jennie McClintock married Rex Clark Taylor, my ggGrandfather. Any help is appreciated. My email is staylor@pastors.com

The purpose of this study is to investigate the relationship between the degree of urbanization and the level of economic development. The study is based on a sample of 100 cities in the United States, selected from the 1980 Census of Urban Populations. The data collected includes the population of each city, the number of manufacturing jobs, the number of service jobs, and the number of government jobs. The study finds that there is a positive correlation between the degree of urbanization and the level of economic development. Specifically, cities with a higher degree of urbanization tend to have a higher number of manufacturing jobs, a higher number of service jobs, and a higher number of government jobs. This suggests that urbanization is a key factor in the development of a city's economy.

Relationship Chart

A relationship between two people can be determined if a common ancestor is known. The two lineages should both begin with the common ancestor, shown on the chart as number 1. Next, list two lineages, one line shown below as A2, A3, A4, etc., which moves up, and the other as B2, B3, B4, etc., which moves down. By tracing any two persons to a point in the box where the grey or white bands intersect, a legal relationship can be found. For example, A3 and B3 are first cousins, but A3 and B4 are first cousins, once removed.

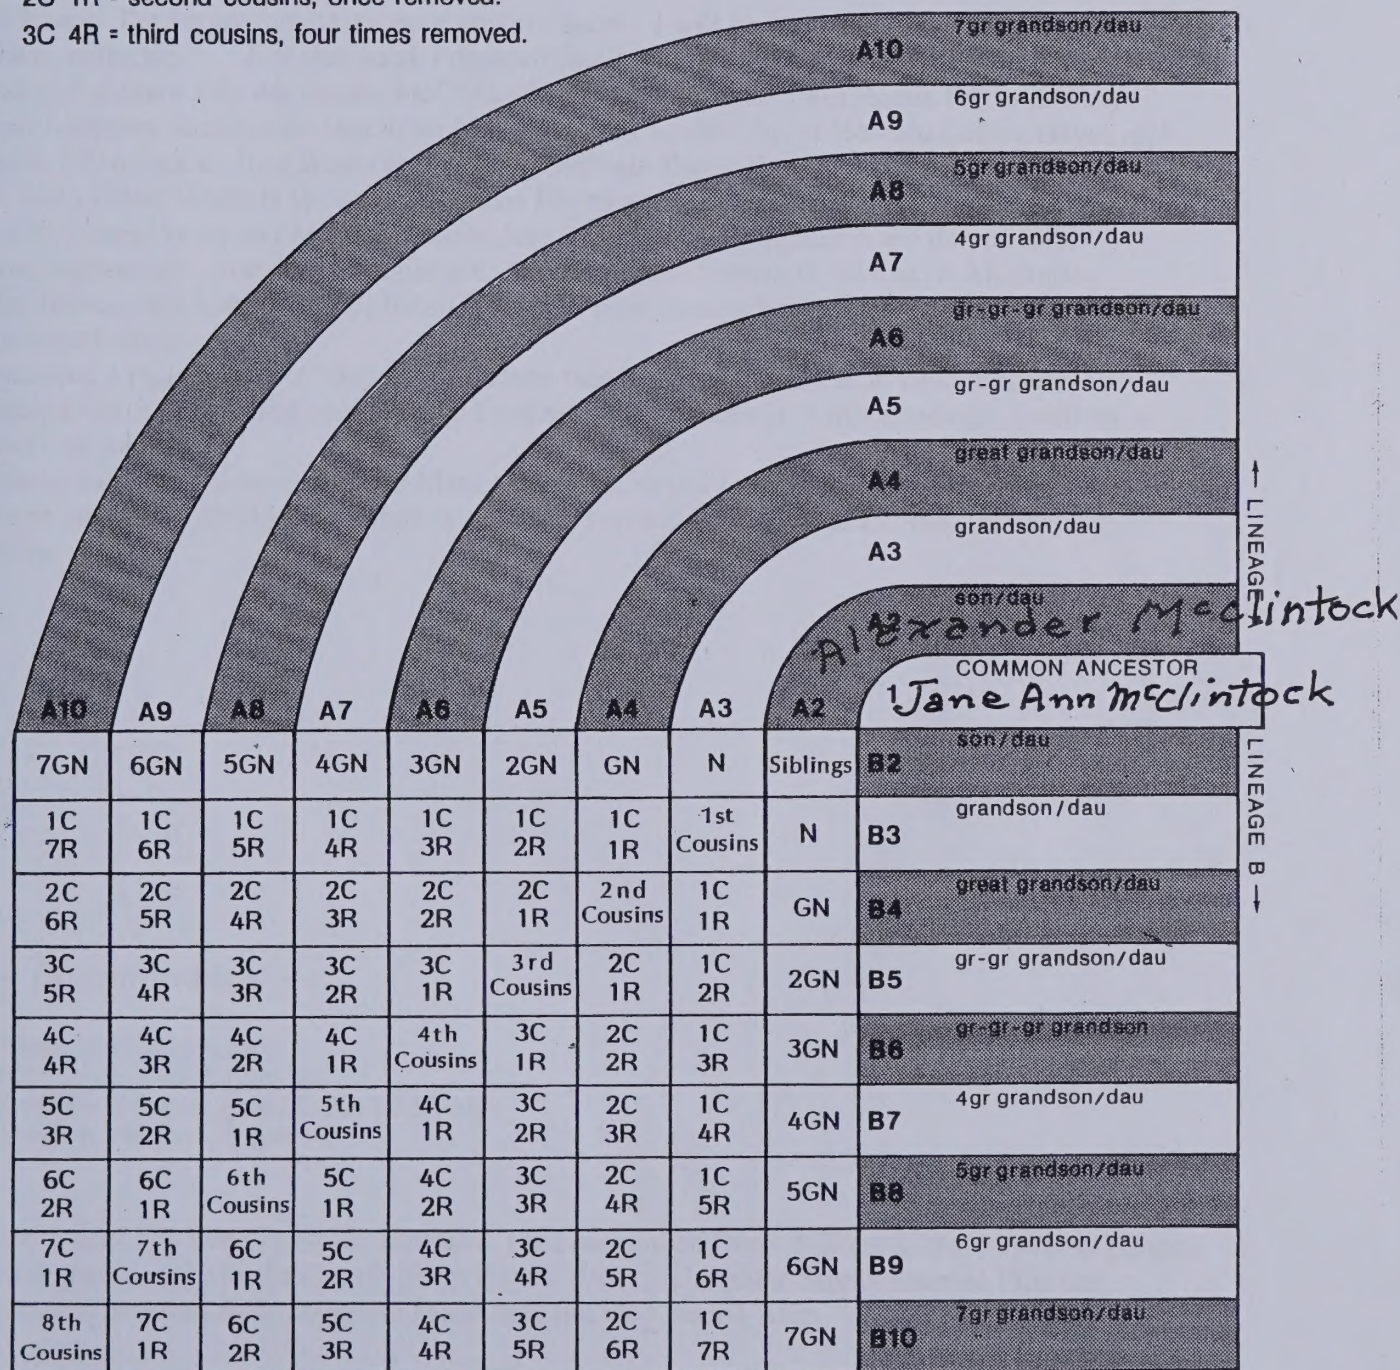

LEGEND:

N = niece or nephew to uncle or aunt.

GN = Great niece or nephew.

2C 1R = second cousins, once removed.

3C 4R = third cousins, four times removed.

Hi Bruce, I'm happy that Mark gave you my name. I will be happy to share with you whatever I have collected. Just this week I decided that I would try for a couple supplementals in DAR and one of them was Alexander McClintock. It goes like this: I am Roena Bayes and my Revolutionary ancestor is Alexander McClintock. I am the dau of Howard LeRoy Bayes and Sarah Ellen Fickle. Roy Bayes is the son of William Potter Bayes and Mahala Ann Partee. William Potter Bayes is the son of Thomas Bayes and Catharine Haley. Thomas Bayes is the son of James Bayes and Martha Cunningham. Martha Cunningham is the dau of John Cunningham and Jane Ann McClintock. Jane Ann McClintock is the dau of Alexander McClintock and Mary (Mollie) Eston/Easton. I now have to be sure that I have all the documentation.

I scanned a picture of W.C.Bayes Cem. stone that my cousin and I took when we were in Holmes Co. in 1984. For some reason I am not able to attach it to this message. I will try to send it separately.

Thanks for your b/d wishes. I see Mark told you how old I am. Can hardly wait to find out where you live. Would love to talk with you if you would send your Ph: No.

Can anyone provide me with any information about William McClintick.

He is found in the 1820 and the 1830 census for Milton Twp. JCO

He was a lawyer.

He was the lawyer who probated the will for John Whetsel my ggg grandfather.

When I was trying to search the land records I find he sold a piece of the original Whetsel farm that was divided at John's death.

I hope someone has info on the McClinticks. Anything would be helpful.

Thanks, Susie

upon failure to pay his membership fee, unless the membership shall cease by reason of death or actual disability, to be determined by the Society of which he is a member.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

Paternal ancestry traces back to the Revolution from two sources: John McKee (5)
and William McLintock II (8)

JOHN MCKEE I--my great-great-great grandfather direct paternal line--was born in north Ireland about 1756, emigrated from County Monaghan, Ireland, about 1775, and landed in Charleston, and settled in the Carolinas.

Served as private in Capt. Van Swearington's Company, Col. D. Morgan's Regiment, Continental Troops, from July 1777 to March 1778; and in 6th S. C. Regiment from August 1st, 1779 to Feb'y 1st, 1780 (Department of Records and Pensions, War Department, Washington) was killed in the Catawba River skirmish, Kings Mountain Campaign, September 12th, 1780, and was interred where he fell.

In an interval of service he married Polly McCoy of Virginia in September 1779, and left surviving him his wife, Polly, and an infant son, John McKee II, my great-great grandfather. The widow later married one Thomas Shaw, a comrad in arms of her late husband, John McKee I, and the family emigrated to Bourbon County, Ky.

The McKee family in America traces through John McKee I back to Glen McKee in Sutherland and Cathnes in north east Scotland. About 1660, the clan suffering defeat in border warfare with the McIntosh and other clans, the chiefs and many of their followers went to France, but religious persecutions (they being ardent Presbyterians), drove them to Holland, whence they later emigrated to north Ireland.

WILLIAM MCCLINTOCK II--father of Elizabeth McLintock II, wife of John McKee II--hence also my great-great-great grandfather--was born in Cumberland (now Perry) County, Penn., in June 1760, and died in Bourbon County, Kentucky, March 20th, 1880.

He entered the Colonial service as private in Capt. Andrew Wallace's Company, 8th Virginia Regiment, Feb'y 28th, 1778 to Feb'y 17th, 1779 (Department of Records and Pensions, War Department, Washington, D. C.)

His father--William McLintock I--was one of six brothers who emigrated from County Tyrone, Ireland, about 1740, and settled in Cumberland (now Perry) County, Penn., in a community then known as Sherman's Valley. The records of Perry County, Penn., show his will filed for probate March 25th, 1808.

All of the above data, except that for recent years which was made by my father, Geo. Leslie McKee (Sr.) from family records, was compiled by James Robert McKee, and preserved on a printed sheet, of which one copy is in my immediate family, under date of December 31st, 1900, then of Los Angeles, California, now deceased, after many years of patient research and correspondence.

On mother's side also trace back direct to ancestors having had military service in the Revolution, which will be furnished later on separate form.
My maternal grand mother, Mrs. Minerva Fisher Winter, was accepted as member of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution, Washington, D. C., October 16th, 1923--National No. 191510.
